By Definition

“Hawker” means any person who offers goods, property or services for sale in the streets, highways, thoroughfares or public rights-of-way of the City by crying out, or by signals, music or other noise.

“Mobile Vending Cart Operator” means a transient merchant who is conducting business from a mobile, but not motorized, vending cart.

“Peddler” means any person who travels from place to place – whether by foot, vehicle, wagon, cart or any other means of conveyance whatsoever, for the purpose of displaying, selling, making sales, soliciting or offering for sale, or leasing with the option to buy, at retail, any goods, property or services. This also includes any person who solicits orders, whether in person or not, and as a separate transaction makes deliveries to purchasers.

“Solicitor” means any person who, without invitation, goes upon private property, to request contribution of funds or anything of value, or sell goods or services for political, charitable, religious, or other non-commercial purposes or who canvasses for political, charitable, and religious or other non-commercial purposes without seeking contributions or selling anything of value.

“Street Vendor” means any person who is licensed to sell, offer for sale, exhibit, display, demonstrate or take orders for the retail sale of any goods or service whatsoever from a motorized vehicle, trailer, semi-permanent stand or structure, or similar device.

“Transient Merchant” The phrase “transient merchant” means any “hawker,” “mobile vending cart operator,” or “peddler,” as herein defined.
